- Exclusive access to the Traful River, first made famous by the pioneers of Patagonia fly fishing: Joe Brooks, Mel Krieger, Ernest Schwiebert, and Jorge Trucco.
- The Traful is unique, flowing between two lakes and receiving runs of giant brown and rainbow trout as well as landlocked Atlantic salmon.
- The historic lodge is defined by graceful, elegant accommodations and sophisticated service punctuated by 5-star dining experience.

THE LODGE

Estancia Arroyo Verde is one of the most unique experiences in all of Patagonia. It is located near the town of Bariloche, where the Traful river runs through a breathtaking valley of incredible wind-and-water sculpted rock formations, breath-taking views of the crystal clear Lake Traful with the backdrop of the white-capped Andes and lush forests. The estancia has a deep history, family-owned and operated by the Lariviere family for over 35 years. The traditional wood and stone built lodge overlooks the beautiful river valley and gin-clear Traful River. The main lodge features a sun-lounge, bar, living-room and dining-room. There are six spacious, comfortable and well-appointed guest rooms, each with private en suite bath.

Custom Itineraries

Every Patagonia Outfitters Itinerary is fully customize-able. Our team has been organizing memorable fishing adventures in Argentina for nearly 40 years, and will work with you to build the perfect itinerary. Estancia Arroyo Verde's unique location just an hour and a half from Bariloche makes it a great destination to spend an entire week, or to begin or end an extended Patagonia holiday combined with one (or more) of our other partner lodges and estancias, overnight camping trips, or other non-angling travel in Argentina such as wine-tasting in Mendoza or touring the famous Iguazu Falls.

All of our trips begin or end with domestic flights from Buenos Aires to either Bariloche or San Martin de los Andes. We will meet you at the airport and take care of you for the duration of your stay with us in northern Patagonia.
